Acquisitions Editor STM (f/m/d)

New Delhi | Full-time | Feb 1, 2026

We are expanding our team in India for our Science, Technology, and Medicine (STM) division and are looking for a total of three new colleagues — different career stages (junior, mid-level, and senior) are welcome. The position offers the flexibility to work remotely from any region in India.

As part of our Editorial Department in the fields of STM, especially in Mathematics, Computer Science, Engineering, Physics, Chemistry, Life Sciences and Medicine, you will actively work on the further development of our academic portfolio. In this role, you will be responsible for acquiring and developing outstanding new publication projects and will contribute to the further expansion of our high-quality program.

Your tasks

- Strategic development and international alignment of our STM portfolio in close coordination with our Head of Academic Partnerships
- Acquisition and development of a publication portfolio (books, book series, Journals, Reference Works) in STM with a focus on manuscripts from authors working in Southeast Asia and Middle East
- Expansion and fostering of academic networks with authors, editors, societies and research institutes

Your profile

- Ideally a Master's degree or a PhD in an STM field (pure or applied) or related subject
- Publishing experience and an academic network are an advantage, but not a requirement
- An acquired knowledge of the market and a strong interest in different (digital) publishing forms; AI knowledge welcomed
- A proactive, goal-oriented working style with excellent time-management

- Budget responsibility for project signings and output toward achieving economic objectives
- Representation of the department at international academic conferences, especially in India
- Close collaboration with our publishing office, production, global marketing and sales teams
- skills, balancing independent decision-making and teamwork effectively
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Outlook)
- Excellent oral and written communication skills and a demonstrated interpersonal ability in relations with authors and editors
- Experience with digital publishing formats, workflows, and systems, combined with strong technical aptitude and adaptability
- Excellent English language skills

We offer you

- An exciting role for a publishing professional who thrives on driving innovation
- Family-friendly working time models, flexitime, and flexible home office arrangements to support a healthy work-life balance, alongside a substantial vacation allowance and additional special leave days
- Extensive benefits and allowances for a healthy, balanced life
- Development budget and opportunities for training and personal development
- Passionate colleagues in diverse, international teams; joint team events and company parties

At De Gruyter Brill, we are dedicated to diversity, equal opportunity, and building an inclusive culture where everyone belongs. We believe in individual potential, so please apply even if you don't meet every requirement—passion and a willingness to learn matter as much as qualifications. We look forward to hearing from you!
